

Division: Institute of Media, Social Sciences and Humanities

Academic programme: 46.03.01 History

Mode of study: full-time

Programme length: 4 years

Programme level: Bachelor's degree

Language of instruction: Russian

Programme description: The goal of this programme is to train highly qualified and competitive specialists in the field of History and History teaching. The fields of professional activity: work in higher educational institutions, educational institutions of secondary vocational education, archives, museums, libraries, specialized academic institutes and other research institutes, expert-analytical and research centres, public and state organisations; in mass media (including electronic media), central and local authorities, in tourist and excursion organisations, and in business.

Programme advantages: starting from the first year of studies, Bachelor's degree students are engaged in the Department's research activities through participation in conferences, seminars and research symposiums, as well as in research grants groups. We use an interdisciplinary approach to training and modern computer technologies, including working in the Moodle system. Students are provided with in-depth theoretical knowledge while learning their subjects, and obtain practical skills required for them to be competitive in the labour market.

Having obtained their Bachelor's degree, graduates can go into further study in Master's degree programmes at SUSU or other universities, or apply for a job in educational or other institutions mentioned above.

In the course of obtaining their education, students take several types of practical training in archaeology, archives and bibliography, museums, pedagogy, and major-specific digital training, including at research laboratories and research-and-education centres (Laboratory for Migration Studies, Laboratory for Oral History, Centre for Cultural Studies, Eurasian Studies Research and Education Centre).

Main programme-specific classes:

- Archaeology
- History of Russia
- History of Antiquity

- History of the Middle Ages
- Modern and Contemporary History
- Source Studies
- History of Historical Studies and Historiography
- History Methodology
- Auxiliary Sciences on History

Programme manager: Candidate of Sciences (History), Associate Professor S.A. Krivonogova